RESPONSES TO THE RESURRECTION

M: The Lord is risen!

P: He is risen indeed!

M: On this second Sunday of Easter we gather, as did the witnesses of old, in disbelief over the empty tomb. Rumors and gossip fill the mouths of those offering explanations. Let us pray to understand the full truth of the risen Christ.

All: O Lord, whose absence leaves us paralyzed but whose presence is overwhelming: Breathe on us with your abundant life, that where we cannot see we may have courage to believe that we may be raised with you. Lift us above our common nature that we might glimpse the glory of new life. To you belong honor and glory, forever and ever. Amen.

M: Christ the Lord is risen!

All: He is risen indeed! Alleluia! Alleluia! Amen!

This Easter text, first in French and later in English, was written to fit the music, a chorus created for Handel's oratorio Joshua and moved to Judas Maccabeus in 1751. It grew widely popular following its use at the First Assembly of the World Council of Churches in 1948.

**May be sung as a canon.*

With its themes of bearing witness in the world, this lively sending song works especially well when sung in canon. The tune name refers to a street parade with music that occurs in many Bahamian towns on Boxing Day (December 26), New Year's Day, and sometimes in the summer.
